QUOTE from CJay Philip: I'm so excited to create this opportunity for people to come together each month to enjoy some laughs, music, dance and a little encouragement. I feel like it's something we all need. You may come to support one friend for the open mic but leave with four new friends cause It's more than an open mic, it's a game night, dance party and out right community jam.

I'm also super excited to feature local theater programs and local writers. Whether you're creating a new show or putting together your own cabaret, you need an opportunity to test it out on an audience and that's what you'll have every month at the Motor House, Broadway Live with family, friends and me. Can't wait to see you!
