

cinema series 405:
Paris, Texas/Ben Stone
Saturday, March 8, 2014, 6:30 PM

5 Films. 5 Guests, 1 Theme: WANDERLUST

We've mixed things up a bit this series by inviting 5 guests to each choose and present a "road movie".

Designer, city planner, artist and Executive Director of Station North Arts & Entertainment District, Inc., Ben Stone brings us Paris, Texas (1984) on March 8th.

Wim Wenders most acclaimed film features the talents of Sam Shepherd (screenplay), Ry Cooder (soundtrack) and Harry Dean Stanton and Nastassja Kinski (acting).

A quintessential road movie, Paris, Texas is a straightforward, yet mesmerizing story of loss, sacrifice and grief, that, as Roger Ebert said, "...is about archetypal longings, set in American myth... it is about a journey which leads from one to the other and ends in a form of happiness."

MENU

salad of ruby red grapefruit, pecans & greens

chili con carne, ranch house beans (vegetarian), chili con queso with tex-mex accompaniments

texas sheet cake

$15: Reservations with payment required (here)

BYOB (However, we will serve a thematic cocktail with a request for a donation of $5 each, cash only)

Doors open at 6:30.

AREA 405 : 405 East Oliver Street : Baltimore MD 21202 :
area405.com